What we offer

At IM, we believe that every team member is key to our success in business. For that reason, our aim is to create an environment that enables everyone to contribute in the best possible way. Below are examples of the benefits we offer and the culture we live. As we are a very dynamic organization, benefits will constantly be reviewed and optimized based on individual requirements and inputs.

We approach colleagues as well as external partners with the highest level of Respect, regardless of any differences in culture, background or opinion. Diversity and open communication are a core value to IM. We appreciate constructive criticism as it helps us make better decisions.

We recognize individual contribution through regular feedback and by prioritizing internal career development. In this context we also support personal development through individual or group trainings.

We encourage a good work-life balance, through flexibility working time or the option to work from home and also support a healthy lifestyle with a variety of small contributions that depend on region, work location and individual requirements.

To support a strong team spirit, we support regular team activities such as short trips, team building events or activities at or after work.
